

National Patient Advocacy Leaders (PALs) Roundtable
A program of the Center for Patient Advocacy Leaders (CPALs)

Addressing the Well-Being of Older Adults with Chronic Diseases and Complex Healthcare Needs

Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation
Barbara Jordan Conference Center

Washington, DC
November 21, 2019

The National PALs Roundtable promotes the mission of the Center for Patient Advocacy Leaders (CPALs): To improve the lives of those affected by disease and chronic health conditions by educating and mobilizing health advocacy leaders to work collaboratively in developing impactful policy and advocacy solutions, focusing on the prevention and elimination of disease and chronic health conditions. The fundamental operating principle expressed in our programs is captured in the credo: “By Advocates, For Advocates”.

OBJECTIVES

- 🌀 Review the current healthcare landscape as it relates to older adults with chronic diseases and complex healthcare needs to identify areas of mutual interest and the potential for organizing a broad array of health advocacy organizations for collective impact.
- 🌀 Explore the issues that impact the long-term well-being of older adults with chronic diseases and complex healthcare needs, the healthcare and social service delivery systems and the growing burden of complex health conditions on patients, caregivers and providers.
- 🌀 Identify opportunities for engagement and collaboration of health advocacy leaders in order to advance the voice of the patient & family in policy that promotes integrated, patient-centered solutions that can improve coverage, promote quality and empower patients, caregivers and advocates in the older adult community.
